

Division of
Continuing Education & Workforce Development
CEWD

Community Health Worker Certificate Program Social Determinants of Health

Join the Fight for Better Health in Your Community!

In 15 weeks, you will gain the knowledge and skills to improve health outcomes while working directly with CBOs, healthcare facilities, and public service agencies.

Classes start September 22---end by December 15, 2025

Program Highlights:

- Earn up to 6 college credits
- Free Tuition & Scholarships: Includes $2,250 stipends and a laptop upon completion.
- Hands-On Learning: Engage in real-world projects addressing SDoH (housing, nutrition, education, and employment).
- Professional Certifications: Includes CPR, Mental Health First Aid, and more.
- Technology Training: Learn health mapping tools, data analysis, and health assessments.
- Community Site Visits: Gain field experience through internships and health assessments with CBOs and health centers.

Program Details:

Eligibility:

- High school diploma or GED.
- Community involvement experience a plus (church, school, block assoc, etc.).
- Some health care experience a plus (including in family): chronic illnesses, substance abuse, home assistance, etc.
- Motivation to engage the community around health concerns.

Duration: 15 weeks (90 hours of in-person instruction towards certification).

APPLY NOW

